Message from the Editor

This month's slate brings thoughtful, critically acclaimed titles like 12 Years a Slave and Into the Wild, emotionally resonant stories ideal for your sailings.

Our Sounds True wellness programs continue to support guest relaxation with meditations and mindful interviews.

We're also excited to share our new blog, which explores how we use AI not to replace human insight, but to enhance it.

This month's cover features beach houses at Daniel's Head Park, highlighting Bermuda, our featured cruise destination, known for its sun-drenched shores and island charm.

DESTINATION OF THE MONTH

Image - Bermuda Bay, Bermuda

KINGS WHARF - ROYAL NAVAL DOCKYARD, BERMUDA ELEGANCE, LEGEND, AND BEAUTY IN PERFECT HARMONY!

Bermuda captivates cruisers with its pink-sand beaches, turquoise waters, and colonial charm.

Must-see highlights include Horseshoe Bay, the UNESCO-listed town of St. George's, and the Royal Naval Dockyard with its shops and maritime history. The island's signature pastel-hued houses with stepped white limestone roofs designed to harvest rainwater, add architectural character to every coastal view.

Nature lovers can explore the Crystal Caves or cycle the scenic Railway Trail. Iconic landmarks include Gibbs Hill Lighthouse, offering panoramic island vistas, and the Bermuda Moongates with limestone arches steeped in local legend, said to bring good luck to those who pass through.

With its blend of history, natural beauty, and architectural elegance, Bermuda remains a cruising gem.
