Message from the Editor

While fall settles in on shore, cruise ships sail into a festive stretch that blends Halloween fun with the start of the holiday season. Now is the perfect time to refresh onboard programming with entertainment that feels seasonal and exciting wherever guests travel.

Feature top new releases rich in drama and mystery with a touch of comedy, alongside a curated selection of Halloween-ready horror films that bring suspense and fun to the high seas.

Complement the thrills with Artcast's vivid fall visuals and spotlight Nova Scotia, Canada, as the destination of the month. Its striking coastline and maritime heritage capture the season's spirit and set the tone for upcoming holidays, creating an atmosphere that captivates every guest.

DESTINATION OF THE MONTH

Image - Bay of Fundy, Nova Scotia, Canada

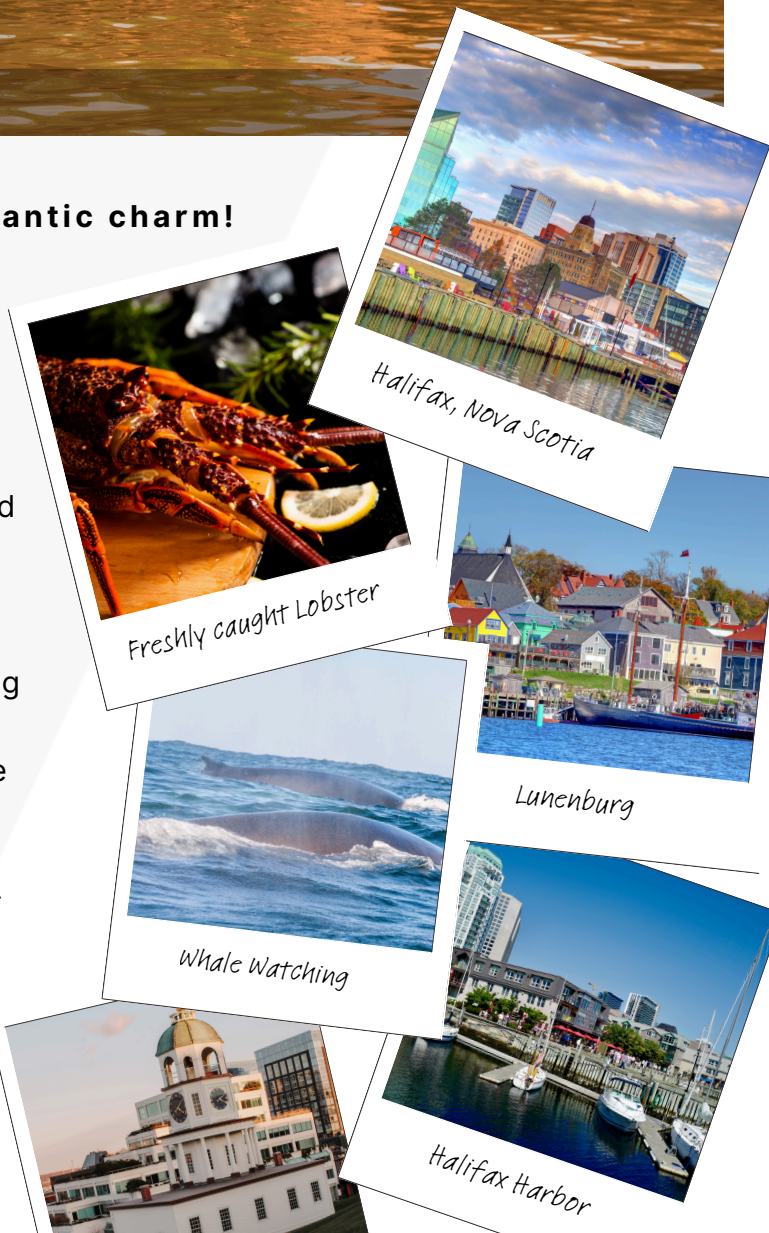

NOVA SCOTIA, CANADA

Lighthouses, lobster, and unforgettable Atlantic charm!

Nova Scotia blends dramatic Atlantic coastlines with a proud maritime heritage. Cruise visitors can stroll the vibrant Halifax waterfront, marvel at the Bay of Fundy's record-breaking tides, and capture the picture-perfect Peggy's Cove Lighthouse, one of Canada's most photographed sites. Colorful Lunenburg, a UNESCO World Heritage town, adds historic charm and striking seaside views.

Adventure options abound. Hike coastal trails, kayak along rugged cliffs, or join a whale-watching excursion to spot majestic marine life. Every port reveals a new perspective on the province's natural beauty and seafaring past.

Nova Scotia's culinary scene is equally memorable. Savor freshly caught lobster and Digby scallops, indulge in creamy seafood chowder, and sample award-winning wines and craft beers. Whether exploring coastal landmarks or enjoying local flavors, each stop promises authentic taste and unforgettable scenery.
